

Getting “Your Calling”

Chiron, Wholeness and Vocation

A workshop with Joyce Mason

Why is Chiron so important? Lingering wounds or chronic illnesses are ongoing reminders in the body of lessons we agreed to learn this lifetime, a sort of Geiger counter that keep us on our personal evolutionary path. (It beeps with hurt when we wander off the road.)

Inside each of these wounds is the key to our healing. This sore spot also contains our greatest gifts to give. When we surmount a particular kind of “grief,” it’s our job to share with our community how to overcome that type of life challenge. Same thing goes for sharing our unique talents. That’s why astrological Chiron contains pain that unlocks gifts and why it’s the key to your true vocation or calling. Chiron helps us surmount our personal hurdles to wholeness as well as steers us toward the best way we can “give back” to our community. We’ll cover:

- The Continuing Discovery of Chiron - Highlights of what we’ve learned about this wounding, healing and wholemaking archetype since Chiron’s astronomical discovery in 1977
- The Meat is in the Tale - The richest information about Chiron and clues for its metaphorical meaning come from the ancient Greek Chiron myth. A recap of Chiron’s story told as a three-act play.
- Chiron and Vocation - How your Chiron configuration (sign, house, aspects) hints at your calling, the thing you need to do to feel fulfilled.

The workshop style is interactive, starting with how you see your Chiron, chronic wounds and their purpose at the start the workshop. This day may change your outlook, and you’ll walk away with tools to continue discovering your Chiron.

Joyce Mason has consulted, written, and spoken on astrology for three decades. In the ‘90s she edited the international newsletter Chironicles, presented at UAC, and created the Chironic Convergence, a “sharshop” near Chiron’s mythical Greek homeland. Recently, she has published two e-books on Chiron and over 100 multi-topic articles on her popular blog, The Radical Virgo. She’s the President and CEO (Catalyst, Enthusiast, and Organizer) of NCGR - Sacramento Area.
