Tools for Your Bloomin' Spirit

See separate Service Menu insert for details about service options and and fees

Astrology offers hints in your birth chart about how you tick and provides invaluable guidance about relationship, career, and vocation. The current positions of the planets in the sky show what classes are on the agenda for you now in the School of Life. These transits also determine the optimal timing of important, personal events. At best, astrology helps you live in sync with the seasons, sky, and everyone and everything under it.

The Motherpeace Tarot is unsurpassed in joining the intuition of both the seeker and reader to reach insight and clarity, whatever the issue. It blends well with astrology (the Astro-Tarot Reading).

Dreamwork is where we discover, together, the Sage in Your Subconscious by mining wisdom from your night movies.

Flower Essences are tinctures of flower petals taken orally to balance emotions. There is a remedy for nearly every conceivable human challenge.

Inner Growth Work

... is Astrology-Plus +. While Joyce works primarily with astrology as a symbol system, her eclectic practice acknowledges that no one tool does everything for everyone at all times. There's a synergy among many of the metaphysical tools. Joyce offers her clients a colorful—and helpful—palette of possibilities.

Inner Growth Work describes the process by which we consciously grow and stretch. The goal is fulfillment, to live fully as a spirit in body. When we grow into the best you and me we can possibly become, we nurture the seed of our truest and most magnificent Self. Achieving that wholeness sets off a chain reaction—a divine domino effect resulting in a better world.

A consultation isn't just for the times you're stuck ... it's a proactive and prescriptive way to greet life with gusto and turn growing pains into grateful gains.

Style—and Service with a Smile

Joyce offers spirit-centered, down-to-earth guidance, field tested in the School of Life. She works at a deep level and creates a compassionate, trusting space where transformation has room to take place. She creates an atmosphere of safety and dignity, lightened with her considerable sense of humor—and hopefully, yours. You are in the driver's seat on the journey; she's your facilitator and co-pilot. You're partners in possibility.

"LAUGHTER IS CARBONATED HOLINESS."

Anne Lamott, Author

Through her use of symbolic tools and vibrational remedies, seasoned with her exceptional intuition, Joyce can help you access your innermost truth and remove blocks to self-expression. She considers it an honor to serve in this capacity in a process that's both sacred and playful.

About the Future

I'm happy to identify general trends, cycles, and the likely themes of your current learning. Beyond that, I don't believe it is either conscious or ethical to make specific predictions. Predictions disregard free will and your power to choose. Another important reason is the law of cause and effect (karma). Predictions set up a strong energy toward self-fulfilling prophecy. This a dangerous form of "fooling Mother Nature," a subtle form of manipulating your life—not ultimately helpful. The truth is, no one can really predict the future. We live in a world of possible futures, influenced by the choices we make in every moment. The outcome is shifting constantly, and the highest use of our work together is to help you make the best choices for optimal outcomes.
